

Ethyl and the Regulars play a high-octane blend of blues, rockabilly, western swing and hillbilly boogie. Whether they are playing one of their heart felt originals or a scorching cover, their two, three and part harmonies and pure musicianship will fuel your night life.

High Octane Hillbilly Boogie, Honky-Tonk, & Western Swing!

Mark Millard - Drums and Percussion

Mark is originally from El Paso, Texas and as luck would have it he ended up here in Denver. Mark has had stints with several touring bands including Rockin' Lloyd Tripp and Arson Roulette. Mark's steady rhythms keep it regular.

Jeff Yeary "JY" - Acoustic Guitar and Vocals

JY has been around the roots scene so long his love of music transformed him into a musician. He has fronted such bands as the Honky Tonk Hangovers and toured with the Blue Ribbon Boys. He is now front and center with this outfit strumming and crooning in that lonesome tenor.

Tim Whitlock - Pedal Steel, Mandolin, Guitar and Vocals

Tim has been writing and making music for over 30 years and as a member of the Dalhart Imperials has played his pedal steel at festivals and concerts all over the U.S. and Europe. Tim actually saw the band play and told us he wanted to be a Regular - and Ethyl is so glad he did.

Donnie Jerome - Upright Bass and Vocals

Donnie has been playing original music in Denver for over 25 years namely Money Plays 8, The Honky Tonk Hangovers and the Dalhart Imperials. Donnie pens a lot of the bands original numbers. He's played jazz, blues, honky tonk, swing and good old rock n' roll and brings his experience and joy for music to the table 24-7.

Hank Hays - Lead Guitar and Vocals

Hank was a founding member of Indianapolis' SwingRays and has spent time in Wayne "The Train" Hancock's band touring the States. Hank is as much a music historian, engineer and producer as he is a great musician.
